

I think the do not call list that we have in In. is great. I do not want it to change. If I want to buy something I want to be the one doing the calling and if any one company calls me I would never do any kind of business with them ever and its clear that no one wants it to change but the business's. Please do not change it.